3. POSSESSION. Possession would be given on Oct 4, 2018, or sooner by mutual agreement. Settlement would be made at the closing, immediately prior to possession.

4. INSPECTION. After the final acceptance of a binding Purchase Agreement, Buyer may have the Real Estate inspected by a person of Buyer's choice to determine if there are any structural, mechanical, plumbing or electrical deficiencies, structural pest damage or infestation, any unsafe conditions or other damage, including the presence of radon gas, any lead-based paint hazards, and inspections for other conditions that are customary to the locality and/or that are required by law.

5. SELLER'S WARRANTIES. Seller warrants that the title of the proposed property to be sold is and shall be good. Good title consists of Seller's actual possession of the property, Seller's right of possession of the property, and Seller's right of property. Buyer is responsible for performing any title search or other due diligence investigation of title as may be appropriate and may withdraw from a binding Purchase Agreement if it is discovered that Seller does not have good title. Seller shall deliver title to the property to Buyer in the form of a Warranty Deed.

6. STANDARD PROVISIONS. The Purchase Agreement will include the standard provisions that are customary to the locality and/or that are required by law.

7. NON-BINDING. This Letter of Intent does not, and is not intended to, contractually bind the parties, and is only an expression of the basic conditions to be incorporated into a binding Purchasing Agreement. This Letter of Intent does not address all of the essential terms of any potential Purchase Agreement. This Letter does not require either party to negotiate in good faith or to proceed to the completion of a binding Purchase Agreement. The parties shall not be contractually bound unless and until they enter into a formal, written Purchase Agreement, which must be in form and content satisfactory to each party and to each party's legal counsel, in their sole discretion. Neither party may rely on this Letter as creating any legal obligation of any kind; neither party has taken or will take any action in reliance on this non-binding Letter of Intent, whether a contract claim, a claim for reliance or estoppel (such as a claim for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a party), or a claim for breach of any obligation to negotiate in good faith.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY. Buyer and Seller agree to make good faith efforts to hold any pricing terms, negotiations, and any other confidential information in confidence and will not disclose this information to any person or entity without prior written consent from either party.
